

Mary Kay Cosmetics

Mary Kay, a direct selling cosmetic company, isn't merely an opportunity for financial freedom, but a way of life for Mary Munns. 24 years ago, Mary Munn's began her own Mary Kay business and today, she is still enjoying all the benefits it brings - from trips, cars, jewellery and additional bonuses, Mary has also earned the rewarding responsibility of mentoring and coaching other women along the way.

If Independent Sales Director Mary Munns didn't embrace the Mary Kay opportunity, her life would be completely different today. With vast knowledge and experience in the Cosmetic industry, Mary has transformed many women over the years- especially those living in the rural Queensland area.

So, whether you're wanting to know what's hot in the beauty industry, a personal skin analysis or even beginning your own business, be sure to speak with Mary Munns at our Convention.
